

(a) one line of the manuscript, cut into words and into glyph strings

f116r, line 47

sheet 1 of quire T, leaf b as written

osainshkyqorainchckheyqokeylkechyokeeyokalchedkaly

31343010711771381

a word used 2-10 times is rare text · used once, or more than ten times: not counted qokeylk · 5 uses · across a gap chckhey · 30 uses, too common · inside one word · chedkal · used once · inside one word yqorain · 4 uses · across a gap · kechyok · 3 uses · across a gap the same line, spaces removed

EVA letters; ticks mark the old gaps every 7-letter window, by its uses

2-10 uses: rare text · used once · more than 10

12 of the line's 44 windows are rare text the two leaves of one sheet

(b) where this line's rare text recurs: on the other half of the same sheet

f103r sheet 1 of quire T, leaf a — joined to f116r at the fold; 25 pages away as bound

f103r, line 11

shedyokaincheyqorainsheyyotoy yqorain

f103r, line 5

shedyoteeyqokeylkarshooky

qokeylk

f103r, line 27

qokechyokeyqokeeylkeedy

kechyok

Each such shared occurrence is one conjugate-leaf pair in the leaf-pair test. The same strings recur on other pages too; the test asks only whether pairs of occurrences fall on the two halves of one sheet more often than random placement gives.